
Hey there! My name is Alex, I have been a Veterinary Technician for over 5 years. I have my Associates Degree in veterinary Technology and I always strive to broaden my horizons with continued education. My motto is treat every patient like they are my own pet and to give every pet a positive experience. I have two of my own fur babies and they are my best friends!