

Mixed Veterinary Surgeon Kington, Herefordshire

A fantastic opportunity has arisen for a mixed practice vet to join our strong team, on the Herefordshire / Mid Wales Borders.

Are you are looking to join a forward thinking, truly independent, employee owned mixed practice where clinical independence is encouraged and all set within spectacular countryside? Then look no further.

We offer:

- A good range of farm, small animal and equine caseload.
- Commitment to employee engagement and clinical development.
- Support by our friendly team of 9 vets and 6 qualified nurses.
- A spacious, well equipped and newly refurbished premises.
- Competitive salary package commensurate with experience and long term prospects for the successful applicant.
- OOH covered within the team. Working 1:7 (1st & 2nd) rota.
- Provision of compassionate, high quality care to our rural community.

If you are a motivated and enthusiastic veterinary surgeon who is good team player then please send CV & covering letter to:

mandy.naylor@arrowfieldvets.co.uk

For more information about Arrowfield Veterinary Practice visit:

www.arrowfieldvets.co.uk